Supervisors to Hold Meetings on Mondays

As soon as repairs and remodeling of their present quarters start, the board of supervisors will hold their regular meetings on Mondays in the city council chambers. An emergency ordinance was ordered.

The reconstruction program, to cost $80,000, will start in November and is expected to be completed in 90 days.

The remodeling of the supervisorial quarters will give each supervisor an office with a view of the bay and Point Loma, with the shipping in the harbor in the foreground. And the board members get all that without having to pay a cent of rent! They get a new automobile every year for free, also, plus a raise! Pretty nifty, eh?—D. H.

Schools Here To Mark Education Week Nov. 11 - 17

Special plans for the observation of American Education Week, November 11 to 17, have been announced by schools of the Lemon Grove School District. This 36th observance, according to S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent, will bring the needs and achievements of the schools before the public and spotlight the important role education plays in our democracy.

"During American Education Week", he said "our community schools extend a special invitation to the public to visit classrooms and to see the schools in action. Wishing for good schools is not enough. Communities have good schools when the people want them enough to take an interest in them, to work for them, and to cooperate with them. "Lemon Grove residents recently proved in an authorization election that they want schools for community youth. The teachers hope they will continue this interest by visiting the schools next week."

The general theme is "Schools for a Strong America." The local program is part of a nationwide observance which is expected to bring more than 20 million persons into the schools. At the four elementary schools here invitations to parents will be extended by principals, teachers, and pupils. During the entire week each day parents are welcomed to view the classes in regular session. At the Junior High School a fall open house in connection with the P.-T.A. meeting will be held Thursday evening, November 15, beginning at 7:30. Parents will have an opportunity to follow the schedule of their children, with all classes ten minutes in length. Teachers will discuss the work and expected achievements of the term.

National sponsors of American Education Week are the National Education Association, the American Legion, the U.S. Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. With the cooperation of these national sponsors, communities all over the nation will be reexamining their local school program during the week-long observance.

Shock of County Tax Bills Not Too Great

County tax bills were received by local residents last week and the shock was not too great among those who had not improved their property prior to the assessment period.

The tax bill comes in two sections. You may elect to pay all or half of your bill. The first half is due now and becomes delinquent December 11. The rest of the total becomes delinquent on April 11, 1957.

If your remittance is made by mail the envelope must bear a postmark not later than 5 p.m. December 10.

The tax collector says that it is the responsibility of the property owner to obtain and pay tax bills. If you are a property owner and do not receive a tax bill by November 12, Wilbur Easton, county tax collector, should be notified.

Mailing tax bills, says he, are for the convenience of the taxpayer.

He also requests that the information on the bill be read thoroughly and that the entire bill be sent back upon payment of all or half. If there is some question about the assessment the county assessor should be contacted.

A list of tax levies as well as the assessed valuation is printed on each bill.

METAL HEELS REMOVED BEFORE BOYS DANCE

MEDIDEN, Conn.—Boys among 366 teenagers attending a dance at YMCA here were required to remove the metal heel plates from their shoes.

"They may save leather," explained one "Y" official, "but they also do a lot of damage to hardwood floors."

High School District OKs $1.25 Excess Rate

Voters in the Grossmont High School District gave approval of a reduced excess high school tax by 6,551 to 2,450 last Friday. A simple majority was necessary.

There was no organized opposition to the issue and the turnout of voters was considerably heavier than anticipated. Interested school persons expected the general election to obscure the high school one.

The new rate will be $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation. The maximum permitted under state law is 75c and that is the level the rate would have reached had the issue failed. During the past five years the rate was $1.35. The new rate will be for five years. In Lemon Grove the vote was 753 for it and 264 opposed.

The tax actually being imposed presently is $1.03 and the $1.35 maximum was never equalled. School officials say they expect the rate to continue at approximately $1.03. The present rate expires at the end of the school year 1957.

Spring Valley Tot Takes Heavy Drug Dosage

Children are unpredictable. That's the only way to explain the action of four year old Larry Tousley, who took a heavy dose of phenobarbital tablets last Monday evening, October 29.

Larry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Tousley of 3521 South Cordoba, Casa de Oro, sat in the living room enjoying a picture on television. Mother was in the kitchen preparing the evening meal.

The little tot asked for a drink of water and mother obliged. Then mother went about some work, not paying any further attention to Larry.

Suddenly she saw him reeling across the room, but thought he was just playing. Then he did some more reeling and bumped into the wall. She still thought he was fooling. But when he climbed back into the chair and his head started nodding, that's when she noticed the bottle.

Taking the bottle from his hand, she couldn't believe her eyes. It was her prescription from her doctor: phenobarital tablets. Counting the tablets she discovered to her horror that Larry had taken ten tablets.

She called the family doctor and he told her to bring the child to his office immediately. She and her husband lost no time. As soon as they were in the doctor's office the doctor pumped out the child's stomach.

They were then sent to Mercy Hospital where Larry was given something to counteract any remaining drug. He stayed at the hospital overnight. The next day the Tousleys brought him home and he slept all day.

When your reporter saw the tot last Thursday he was playing out in the street with two other boys unmindful of his narrow escape.

Mrs. Tousley still can't figure out how Larry came into possession of the tablets. They were on a top shelf in the kitchen. But you never know about children.

The Tousleys have another son, seven years old.

THINGS DOIN' & BREWIN'

About Civic Center

By DICK HENDERSON

The charming suburb of Lakeside was devoid of residents October 30. They were not absent because of an air raid. The whole population of the area came to town to see the supervisors about a zoning matter.

Every seat in the audience chamber was occupied, and the north and east walls were lined with standees, all of whom waited patiently until 11 o'clock, time set for hearing on proposed amendment of the County Zoning Ordinance No. 1402, (New Series), as it applies to portions of the unincorporated territory commonly described as the Northern Section of Lakeside. (Protests on file.)

Sixty years ago Lake Lido was the leading attraction at Lakeside. There was water in the lake at all times, sometimes flooding the road to Eagle Peak that circled the north shore. Lakeside Hotel was a focal point for travelers and hunters with a yen for roast duck and dressing came out Saturday on the night train—the Cuyamaca and Eastern to the terminus of the line at Foster, were met at the station by two horses, the three-seated station wagon of that day, whisked to the hotel for a good dinner and a comfortable bed, leaving a call for an early start after the birds. A boat house and boats were available, and farmers were wakened by fusillades of double-barreled shot guns. I give you these facts from personal knowledge. I was a clerk-porter at the hotel for about a year, had to get up in time to waken the hunters.

In later years, after John H. Gay, a wealthy San Diego resident, bought the hotel and lake property from El Cajon Valley Company and built a race track for autos around the lake and autoists from all parts of Southern California came to Lakeside for the "races." That was after I left the country and became a "city slicker," as Si Cassady terms guys who live in urban districts. El Cajon was a small settlement at that time and had two hotels, Knox Hotel and the Knowles House, larger and famous for good meals at 25c a throw.

John Gay died, the Lakeside Hotel was torn down and the lumber salvaged.

The hotel stood just east of the fork in the roads that went around the lake, still do, only they are better roads now, the dirt being covered with black top clear up to El Monte Park. Northern section of Lakeside at that time was across San Diego River, and folks laughed when some promoter planted the hills with eucalyptus trees and sold, slowly, the tracts to Chicago folks. For years it was a struggle for the promoters to keep taxes paid, but newcomers gradually took over, built homes and raised peaches or chickens or both and toughed it out.

It is these folks who are protesting the planning commission's "plans." They seem to feel that their rights to a home they have

Montgomery Slaps A Hole In One

Charles Montgomery who operates the liquor establishment at 7779 Broadway is wearing a hole-in-one-halo this week.

Playing Flying Hills course Monday with Ted Vinson, Dr. K. Bryant and Mark Hopkins, Montgomery aproached the eighth tee and fired straight as an arrow 155 yards down the center and the ball bounced, rolled and trickled into the hole.

He finished the course with a 73, which is one over par and was low man of the foursome and walked off with the 75c jackpot but he was soon operating in the red as word concerning his "ace" got out.

Hole-in-oners at Flying Hills usually go for a round of champagne and players that day report that Montgomery was more "usually" than most.

"It was nothing" modestly observed golfer Montgomery.

Jaycees' 'Get Out the Vote Campaign' A Success

The Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce's recent "get out the vote" campaign was rated a success by chairman Bob Bottini. Phones were swamped with calls for transportation all day," he said.

A sound powered truck was dispatched through the streets of Lemon Grove Monday and Tuesday. Transportation service to and from the polls was also provided by the Lemon Grove Jaycees.

Broadway Resurfaced By State

Broadway resurfacing was scheduled for completion this week as the Daley Corp. put the finishing touches to Broadway as this newspaper went to press.

A short strip west of Massachusetts (1/5 mile) is widened to 26 feet. Between Massachusetts and Main the surface is 30 feet wide. Main to Milton it widens to 34 feet and from there to Campo Road it becomes 28 feet.

Resurfacing is part of the State Division of Highways project for returning the road to the county. The state highway will open the freeway in the spring. They will at that time relinquish Broadway to the county.

17 YEAR OLD HELIX HIGH STUDENT GETS BIGGEST BUCK OF SEASON

James Braudway, 17-year-old Helix High junior, with his 275 lb. buck deer—antlers had a 27 inch spread—shot from 350 yards, downhill.

Herman Braudway, his father, shot the smaller buck pictured. Erwin Kramer, third member of the hunting party, not in the picture, got three deer, as did each of the Braudways. A total of nine deer, some does, was brought home by the trio of hunters. Hunting was done in Utah, 1100 miles away.

This is the story about three hunters who went 1100 miles, up into Monticello, San Juan-Elk Ridge district, Utah, after deer, and returned last Friday with nine, mostly bucks, each hunter's license entitling him to three deer this year.

Hunting licenses cost $40, plus $5 for three deer, one doe being allowed under this year's rules.

This hunting party was made up of Herman Braudway, his 17-year-old son James Braudway, Helix High junior, and a close friend of the family, Erwin Kramer.

The Braudways are known as "the huntin'est family in Lemon Grove." Their annual vacation is used every year in deer hunting, and distance of 1100 miles is no deterrent. Last year David Braudway, 13 years old, accompanied the party and got his first deer which was also the first brought down by any member of that party.

This year's hunt, long planned, left the women out, as Herman said. Mrs. Braudway said she didn't want to go, anyhow.

The party of three drove a truck, equipped with a winch and 1,000 feet of wire cable, to haul the carcasses up to semi-level ground where necessary.

This estimated 275 lb. buck was 350 yards down in a canyon when James hit him. A minute earlier he could have shot the animal on the brink of the canyon. Jimmy made his shot, hit the buck from behind, and the wire cable was used to haul the carcass to the truck. The winch is turned with a clutch on a hind wheel of the truck, thus saving manpower, and snatches the victim right up the hill.

Nine Deer Shot

Herman Braudway, the master hunter of the family, got his three deer in order, Jimmy got his other two, and Erwin Kramer tallied three, so the party brought home nine deer. It was plenty cold up there, Herman said, and the carcasses were all given preliminary treatment before being put on the truck.

No ice was needed till the party go to Yuma, having been delayed nine hours by engine trouble. The 1100 mile trek was made without other mishap, and the cargo was dressed out, skinned, etc., on Saturday morning.

The neighborhood gathered 'round to watch the skinning. When this reporter got to the Braudway home, 2483 Hardy Road, there were several carcasses ready and waiting to be taken to the freezer. Deer skins and horned heads were scattered around. We never saw so many deers in a bunch, except at a school teachers' convention one time.

Strange to say, deer hides have little value. Costs $5 to have 'em tanned and dressed, and unless a coat is desired, they are thrown away.

And deer heads, with horns. It costs $45 to have one readied for the wall, so only choice ones are preserved, unless the hunter wants his first victim's head and horns for a reminder.

This big buck of Jimmy's had antlers with a spread of 27 inches, truly a dandy specimen. Jim had a .300 magnum, with telescope sight.

If you want to go deer hunting next year, talk to Herman Braudway. He might be persuaded to tell the details of "good hunting."

His phone is HO 6-2172.—D. H.

No Water Shortage Seen for Helix District

Extra purchase of water from the City of San Diego and S.D. County Water Authority during the past year will provide Helix Irrigation District with all the water it will need to meet average needs for the next 12 months District Engineer Clarence Watters said this week.

The District will have enough water even if there should be no rain during the next 12 months, he said.

A critical period will come in 1957-58 unless rainfall provides sufficient runoff to make up for deficiencies in Colorado River water deliveries and local supply.

A 5% increase in water use is anticipated next year, Watters said.

Stickers to Replace Metal Tabs on '57 Auto License Renewals

Governor Goodwin J. Knight told televiewers Sunday that California vehicle registration will be renewed for next year by attaching a reflectorized red sticker, marked for 1957, to the rear license plate. The sticker will replace the metal tabs used for the past several years.

Governor Knight made the statement during his twice monthly "Ask Your Governor" program via KFSD-tv (Channel 10). The question was asked by Max Goodwin of this newspaper.

The stickers are red with black letters and the state and year printed thereon. The stickers are 1-1/2x1-7/8 inches in size.

The annual renewal procedure will be the same, George Reinerth, local Department of Motor Vehicles stated. Pre-punched cards setting forth fees for 1957 will be mailed immediately after Christmas. Renewal period will be January 2 through February 4.

The stickers reflect light and may be easily seen at night. They cannot be removed from the license plate without being mutilated or destroyed. They have been field tested for a year on California buses.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

The other day one of the daily newspapers carried a story about a Los Angeles couple who got divorced. The wife had sued, charging the husband with "cruelty" but I am pleased to report that the court awarded the husband $25,000 and gave him additionally $1,500 for attorney fees. He was also awarded an expensive engagement ring which he had given this woman under the spell of ardor during which she probably convinced him he wanted to marry her.

I have been in recent years a beacon carrier for equal rights between the sexes but it had become a dying torch as all of the California social, economic and legal advantages have become to favor women more and more.

I have not spent too much time nor effort on a survey of facts but in the course of a cursory study it is my belief that women presently have 90% of the law; 95% of the beauty and 100% of the advantage of sex in their favor.

I am dedicated to reducing this advantage, but in the legal field only! Any advantage they lose here could even be applied to the two other accounts.

Example of how far out of line this advantage has become has to do with a local married woman who appealed to an L. G. attorney for a divorce because she had fallen madly in love with a local bartender.

All she wanted for herself, in addition to the divorce, was title to the home and the car, half of the considerable bank account, and half the upkeep for the children.

The husband, it appeared, had not the slightest suspicion of the dis-affection and service of the divorce papers was to be the first knowledge that his wife was playing around.

The poor unsuspecting stiff had been working such long hours for scratch for his family that he hadn't time to become suspicious. However, demands made by his wife in the action for divorce, would make it appear he was the guilty party.

Another case in the county not so long ago pitted a woman of extreme wealth in her own right against her middle-money-class husband. She simply wanted to toss this guy over for some other bum. Having practically all the money in the county already, she asked the court for a divorce plain and simple; no alimony, no settlement.

The court did its best to satisfy her request for a quick change of breakfast partners but it evidently couldn't stand to set a precedent that might head us back towards equality in the courts. The unwanted husband, already stunned by the fast machinery which set his wife free, was handed an additional jolt when the court made him responsible for paying the attorney's fees for his wife's action.

Some of the other advantages a female enjoys is that she's emancipated at 18 if she's married. She has all the privileges of an adult except drinking and voting.

However, a female may not work more than eight hours a day . . . and if it is a split shift it must be within a 12 hour period and may not put in overtime. She is not permitted by law to lift anything for an employer heavier than 24 pounds.

These advantages may be the reason so many women complain about a little housework . . . a two to three hours daily chore they stretch into six or seven by frequent coffee breaks and nap periods. They then advertise to all who will listen that they work 12 hours each day.

I'm for equal rights for women, all right. If we get them it will give us men a break like we haven't seen since the repeal of prohibition.

FIRST DEER BROUGHT IN BY 12 YEAR OLD KENNY PRIEST

Twelve year old Kenny Priest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Priest, 1715 Englewood Drive, holds aloft a single digit indicating that this deer is only the first of many to come within the sights of his .30-06 rifle.

Kenny returned last week from a hunting foray near Kanab, Utah, with the deer pictured above. The animal weighed 140 pounds, dressed out.

Kenny, together with his father, went two days in on horseback and brought the deer down with one shot.

The rest of the Priest family vacationed in Kanab while the two men hunted. Priest operates a string of Hollywood Beauty Shops, one of which is in Lemon Grove. —L. G. Camera Foto Grossmont Hospital occupancy rate continued high during the month, averaging 84.48% on the second floor and 85.78% on the third floor.

The hospital admitted 496 patients during September. El Cajon kept the lead with 133 patients. La Mesa was second with 93, Lemon Grove sent in 32 customers and Spring Valley 21, Lakeside 17, Alpine 14, Santee six, Ramona five, Descanso three and Los Angeles area ten. AN AND PAL

Two Youngsters Win Bikes At S

"Boy, I never was so excited in my life." Those were the words of Don Hart, 10391 Del Rio Road, as he went into his narration of how he and his pal, James Whorrall of Ocean Beach had landed their first marlin on their initial big fish trip, Sunday, October 21.

The two fishermen were in their 12 foot Chris-Craft with a 25 horsepower Johnson outboard, about ten miles southwest of Point Loma. They were using 200 feet of 63 pound test line.

Around about 11:30 a.m., as Whorrall was munching a sandwich, he suddenly felt a tug on the line. He yelled to Hart, who shut of the motor. Whorrall flipped to the free spool and the fish started running out. Then it leaped into the air and the two saw it was a good sized marlin.

Hart said that after they let the fish play for a while they pulled it in to the boat. After throwing a half hitch of quarter inch line around its tail they decided to drag and drown it. This they did for about a mile.

Then they pulled their catch up to the starboard side. How to get the fish into the boat? That was the big question.

Then Hart remembered a movie he had seen quite some time ago where two fellows landed a 600 pound bluefin tuna. One fellow was in the bow of the boat and the other on the port side.

They followed the same procedure. Hart was at the bow and Whorrall on the port side. Both were really scared, said Hart.

They pulled the marlin half way up the side of the boat and then decided to let it rest there until they caught their second winds.

They already had a half hitch around the marlin's tail. They decided that as soon as their catch was in the boat they would throw several half hitches around him so he couldn't flip around.

At the count of three both pulled together and soon Mister Marlin was on the floor of the boat. They soon had him bound around like an Egyptian mummy, as Hart put it.

In 30 minutes they were at the Marlin Club on Shelter Island. Their catch weighed 158 pounds, and measured nine feet in length. He's been cut up, placed in freezers and the Whorrall and Hart families are already feasting on him.

Don Hart is a native of San Diego and moved to Spring Valley quite some time ago. He and James Whorrall became acquainted at North Island, where they both are in civil service. They have done quite a bit of hunting together, both having bagged a deer at the first of the season.

Hart said he became really interested in big fishing after he had won a Pala Verde salt water rod in a fishing contest sponsored by the Lemon Grove Kick 'n Bangers (rod and gun club) in 1955. He won the prize by landing a 9 pound, 12 ounce albacore about 40 miles south of Coronado Islands. Before that he did mostly fresh water fishing. "That's too tame now," he said.

Hart and Whorrall are members of a newly organized sports club called the "P. M. Sport-Man Club." Hart is president this year. The club is one year old and is comprised of sportsmen around San Diego County. The club, which now has an active membership of 14, meets once a month in the homes of members. Wives of the members plan all the social activities.

The P. M. Sport-Man Club has its own by-laws. It has set a limit of 25 members. So they can use 15 or 16 more members. Anyone interested may call Don Hart at HO 9-5517.

Note: Since the foregoing was written, the two pals have landed another marlin, a 139½ pounder, about five miles out from Ocean Beach. That was last Wednesday. It took them 35 minutes to land him.

Local Man Presides Over National Group

A Grove man, William F. Hickey, 7853 Nichols St., national president of the Fleet Reserve Association, left by air for Philadelphia where he will preside over the association's 29th annual convention.

Hickey, who is employed by the First National Bank, will address more than 1000 delegates representing naval installations throughoutt he world.

The business of the convention will include consideration of some 80 resolutions most of which deal with personnel problems within the Navy and Marine Corps. Other business includes the election of national officers for the coming year.

It was under Hickey's administration that the association sponsored the recent "Mrs. U. S. Navy" contest which received nationwide attention.

Wives Use More Energy Than Men, Doctor Says

Housewives burn up more energy than most hubbies do on their jobs, a Cleveland heart specialist says.

Dr. Herman K. Hellerstein of Western Reserve University's School of Medicine, said the average housewife burns from three to five calories of energy a minute.

This, he said, is more than is burned up by men on most jobs, except such occupations as "foundry workers, jobs entailing handling of materials, farmers and dock workers."

VLM CLASSES VISIT S. D. HARBOR

Mrs. Snell's second and third grade combination room at Vista La Mesa School is studying about San Diego harbor and its associated industries. Recently the group went on a field trip to see our harbor. Under the leadership of Mrs. Snell, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Ek, Mrs. Trexler and Miss Suggs, the children visited the Cabrillo Light House, the U. S. Coast Guard Air Station, and rode the ferry to Coronado where they had a picnic lunch before returning to school.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Not in TIME nor LIFE, not in the SATURDAY EVENING POST, nor in some great metropolitan newspapers, but to the little old LEMON GROVE REVIEW I had to come to read a story that excited my deepest emotions.

The story was in the form of a letter by Mike Kraus of Lemon Grove.

Every word of his experience with the abandoned blind dog struck me to the heart.

I am not nearly so thankful for our national prosperity as I am for men and women too like Mr. Kraus.

They are the ones who carry on humanity's ideals and never let them die.

We are living in a critical era just now which is marked for its increasing brutality to living creatures and I speak not only of brutality of act but brutality of neglect. The only seeds we have for a future regrowth of civilization are just such people as Mr. Kraus who see and share the suffering of all God's creatures.

And they do suffer. Ask any slaughterhouse worker who has to sometimes hit a steer (with a 16-pound sledge hammer) or cow two, three or four times before the chained, lunging animal's skull is cracked. Ask any race horse trainer who has had to burn his horse's knees to get a few more races out of him—a burning so intense that the horse has to be held in rigid harness to keep him from chewing the flesh from his own knees—sometimes for as long as 24 hours—ask—ad infinitum—.

Thank you, REVIEW, for publishing that letter.

Frank Walton.

Reader Walton and others will be pleased to know that the owner of the dog referred to in Mike Kraus' letter also read the story. The dog had wandered away from home and become lost.

SERMON CONTRASTS

MORTALS AND IMMORTALS

Paul's words in Romans (8:6), "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace," constitute the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon, "Mortals and Immortals" in the Christian Science churches, Sunday.

This thought in the Golden Text is amplified by citations from The Psalms where the Psalmist prays, "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. . . . And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us." "As for me, I will beholden thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness." (90:12, 17; 15:15).

Grove, Valley Backs Ace Helix Win

By Bob Turnbull

Undefeated Helix High School, paced by Spring Valley's Dan Spinazzola and Lemon Grove's Gary Dunn, exercised a good job of scalping last Friday night on the Highlanders field. They walped the Braves of El Cajon, 7.

n overflow home coming d of several thousand fans ed the stadium an hour to watch the pre game and alft me festivities. Myrtle Tilling was crowned homecoming queen.

Spinazzola's tank-like bulldozing repeatedly tore the big El Cajon line to shreds. The victory, as usual, lies in the line's ability to open holes for the fleeing backs and Helix's line was way over par for the evening. They show a marked improvement with each game. Spinazzola scored two TD's on a 11 yard run and a one yard lunge.

Dunn scampered 34 yards for his TD and kicked two conversions. Ron Palermo, right halfback, scored his two six-pointers on runs of 6 and 17 yards. Reserve back Keith Hall lumbered 68 yards in the last play of the game to tally in the opponents striped zone. Scoring for El Cajon was Joe Klucewich.

In the first half the tackling for Helix was somewhat slack in spots as the fellows tried to "grab" their enemies instead of "hitting" them. But line-coach Warren Vinton must have said a few well-chosen words at halftime, because the fightin' Highlanders could do no wrong after that. Friday night the Green 'n Gray warriors meet Chula Vista at Helix, then follows Sweetwater, and more than likely Hoover in the first round of the SCIF playoffs held yearly in Aztec Bowl. Good luck, Helix, in your next three games, and don't let yourself "get down."

Advertising Doesn't Cost — It Pays!

FOUR STEPS TO RECORD CARE

By BOB TURNBULL

1—Probably the most important item is to always make sure your needle is not worn. A pooped-out phonograph needle is worse than last year's suit and twice as damaging. It has a chisel 'n pick effect on the grooves of all modern records. A new diamond needle is the best bet so you can receive all the benefits from your "cool" lp's, rhythm and blue, pop or classical records. Running a close second is the sapphire needle.

2—Proper storage space is important. You wouldn't stuff your new formal or sleeping bag under your bed, would you? Of course not! So don't squeeze your records into some ridiculously small area. Store your lp's and 45's in flat stacks.

3—Don't touch record grooves. A record should receive the same care your new roadster does. After spending all day pencil-striping your car you'd scream if a neighbor, friend or another member of the family smeared it all up. Same goes with the records. The grease and heat from your fingers can cause dust to infiltrate the surface and then a scratchy effect is evident. Always handle the records by the center or edges.

4—When cleaning the wax discs wipe it lightly with a soft, slightly damp cloth before playing. This picks up the majority of house hold dust 'n dirt and reduces static electricity which can attract dust from the air when playing. This small effort has the same effect that your math teacher does when she wakes you up in class and "explains just once more your problem." That fog that bothered you a bit ago has split the scene and you're in! Catch?

Del Mar Fair Needs Name for New Exhibition Building

A name for a new exhibition hall is wanted by the county fair people at Del Mar and area residents are invited to compete for the prize and privilege of naming it.

The building, due for completion this month, contains approximately 58,380 square feet of display space. Cost of construction was $476,000. It will be used for agricultural and industrial exhibits entered by counties, granges, chamber of commerce and similar organizations.

Two season tickets, plus parking privileges, for next summer's exposition will be awarded the person who submits the name chosen for the building. Selection will be made at the December meeting of the board of directors.

Suggestions should be mailed to the exposition at Del Mar on or before Nov. 30.

Local Minister Named President Of South Circuit Of Lutheran Churches

Twenty-five members of the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church attended the annual convention of the Southland Circuit of the Evangelical Luthern church which was held at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior at San Clemente. The convention consisted of an afternoon session of devotions, business and election of new officers. Pastor H. C. Bakken of Lemon Grove Lutheran was elected president of the circuit. The ladies of the host congregation served a dinner in the evening. The evening inspirational service included several vocal selections by the massed choir and the main message by Dr. Gaylord Falde of Los Angeles who is president of the California district of Evangelical Lutheran church.

Two Firms Handling Blind Made Products

Solicitation among area residents is being made currently to buy blind made products. Many persons are confused as to whom they are dealing with. To add to the confusion there are five different listings in the telephone book having to do with organizations of the blind.

Of the several listed there are two operating in San Diego that handle blind made products: The first is the Blind Industries of California. It is located at 100 West B Street. Lloyd Brunner is manager.

Mr. Brunner informed this paper that the company was established in San Diego in 1947. Their products, he pointed out, are made entirely by blind people, and the profits therefor go to the blind. He said the two owners of the San Diego concern are blind. Many of the items for sale come from Los Angeles and other places around the country. They sell their goods over the telephone as well as having salesmen call at the homes.

The other concern is a California Workshop for the blind at 14th and F Streets in San Diego. It is under the California Department of Education and blind people are employed there. There are two other such workshops in California, one in Los Angeles and the other in Oakland. The employees do piece work and occasionally get a bonus, according to a spokesman.

There is an outlet for this work, a shop at 915 E Street. It is also operated by blind persons, according to Mr. Tyron, manager. They also sell from door to door.

Both businesses are helping the blind to make a living and as Mr. Tryon put it, "We're glad to be in a sunshine state like California, where we can make a decent living."

Water District Election Boundaries To Be Changed

Changes in the election divisions of the Helix Irrigation District have been directed by the district directors so that they will be ready for an election to be held next February, R. H. Levy, board chairman, has announced.

Although electors in the La Mesa - Spring Valley divisions will be the only ones balloting on directors in this election, boundaries of the other three districts may be adjusted slightly at this time also, Levy said.

Under the program suggested by Mrs. Margaret Penry, the secretary of the district who is in charge of elections, no areas will be removed from either Division 2 or Division 4 for the coming election. Additions will be made to each of them, she said.

In an adjustment for the 1959 election, some voters may ballot in 1957 in one district and be moved into another district before the 1959 election, and thus be entitled to vote again then, she said.

The "equalization" of the five districts is scheduled to take place in two stages. The current registrations in Division 2 for the 1957 election totals 9,828 and in Division 4, 8,405.

Current registrations in the other divisions, slated for 1959 elections are: Grossmont 8,558; Lemon Grove 7,471 and El Cajon 8,269.

Helix High Graduate Weds State College Man

Patricia May Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Johnson of 7040 Central Avenue, Lemon Grove, and Donald R. Milow, son of Edgar F. Milow and the late Mrs. Milow, 4415 Monroe Avenue, San Diego, were married Sunday afternoon in United Presbyterian Church of La Mesa, the Rev. Rex Law officiating.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace and tulle, fashioned with bouffant skirt and a boat-shaped neckline outlined with sequins.

A crown of lace embroidered in pearls held her fingertip veil. White orchids, lilies of the valley and stephanotis formed her bouquet.

Attendants included Mrs. Frank Taylor, matron of honor; Mrs. Clayton Johnson Jr., and Teresa Carlson, flower girl.

E. Dean Milow was his brother's best man, and ushers were James Hill, Kenneth Gordoneire, Rodney Michel and Clayton Johnson, Jr.

A reception was held in the church parlor for 200 guests, after which the young couple left for a northern trip. They will reside in San Diego.

The bride is a graduate of Helix High School. The groom attended Hoover High School, San Diego Junior College and San Diego State College.

The Hallowe'en Carnival held on the Junior High grounds was a successful adventure for Golden Avenue P.-T.A. Beginning at 5:00 p.m. and closing about 9:30 p.m., with a costume parade at 6:30. It resulted in $947.02 gross being turned in for the P.-T.A. program. The figure is gross only and the expenses must be deducted from it; however, this will be about 2/3 of this total for our own treasury. We don't know who put in the 2c. The Junior High dance worked out very well with the carnival, too.

More Newcomers To L. G. and Spring Valley

New residents settling in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley continued to arrive during October. The nice part of this news is that the newcomers have bought and are settled in their new homes, insuring their continued residence in our beautiful area.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sonna are living in their new home (four months old), at 2640 Corona. They have three daughters, aged respectively 2, 6 and 16 years, formerly lived at 3435 Trophy Drive, La Mesa, have two cars, a '54 Ford and a '55 Lincoln. Their home phone is HO 9-9210. Call up the daughter, boys. Maybe her Maw will let you take her to a picture show. Oh sure, they subscribed to the REVIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. Felipe Castaneda have purchased the three months old house at 2541 Corona. Coming here from National City, the Castaneda family is happy in their new home, wonder why they didn't come here sooner. Three daughters, 11, 12 and 15 years young, brighten the household, keep their Maw busy. Mr. Castenada is employed at Convair, drives a '53 Ford, and has applied for a phone. He subscribed for the REVIEW, to supersede the Independent, whatever that is.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith are living at 2235 El Prado, renting the house until they decide where they want to settle permanently. They have a boy a year old who'll take care of the yard after a while. Mr. Smith is in the Air Force, drives a '54 Ford when he travels on the ground. A phone has been applied for, and the REVIEW will be deliverd by Frenchy Fatcher's efficient helpers. Looks like the Smith family is all set for happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Baker own their two-months-old home at 7809 Palm, Lemon Grove, have a girl two years old, and have applied for a phone. Mr. Baker is with Western Electric, installations department, and drives a '53 Plymouth. The REVIEW will gladden their lives each week. The Bakers moved here from San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor have purchased the two-months-old home at 2537 Mulder Street and are all set to enjoy our climate and beautiful surroundings. They have a girl of 12 and a boy of two years to help the enjoyment. The O'Connors moved to their new home from a location on Main Street, which proves to us that Lemon Grove's charms still have a hold on their affections. Mr. O'Connor is an electrician at Naval Air Station. He drives a '51 Chevvy, has applied for a phone and subscribed for the REVIEW. Welcome aboard, Sailor! to you and your family.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Askew have moved into their three-weeks-old home at 2549 Skyline Drive, in Lemon Grove, with their two children, a boy of two years and another boy three weeks young. They formerly lived at 2912 Olive. Mr. Askew is a civil service employee at North Island, drives a '53 De Soto, has applied for a phone and subscribed to The REVIEW. We are glad you and your folks will continue to live in Lemon Grove, Mr. Askew.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Nelson have purchased the home at 3424 Scenic Terrace, Spring Valley, and are all settled in their four-months-old house, with three boys, 7, 4 and 2 years old, plus a girl with one year to her credit. The Nelsons moved here from Jamestown, New York, where they lived at 4 N. Crowder Street. Mr. Nelson is a carpenter, drives a '53 Plymouth, goes to Lutheran Church and his phone is HO 3-2132. We are doubly glad to meet newcomers from New York State, as our mother was born and brought up in Albany, New York. She took me back to see her folks, father, mother, five sisters and one brother, when I was ten years old. We stayed the winter, I entered the grade school, fourth grade, I think, and the kids razzed me about living in California, wouldn't believe I had picked oranges from the trees. The school had no playgrounds, nothing but a two story building next to residences. I'll bet the Nelson boys will have fun on our spacious playgrounds. Glad to have you aboard, folks. Almost forgot to say that the Nelsons have subscribed to Spring Valley BULLETIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Christiano —he's a salesman for Winfield China—are renting the house at 3028 Main Street, have two boys, 8 and 7 years and twin girls of one year, to share it. The Christianos come from Rochester, New York, "where they make Kodaks." They lived at 239 Webster Avenue when it snowed. Papa Christiano drives a '51 Pontiac, goes to Catholic Church every Sunday, has applied for a phone and has subscribed for The REVIEW. Pretty good, hey?

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Menconi have purchased the three-weeks-old home at 8418 Roy Street and have four girls, 14, 8, 4 and 3 respectively. They came from Clairmont, Calif. Mr. Manconi is a Navy man, has two Pontiacs, a '36 and a '50, has applied for a phone and subscribed for The REVIEW. Welcome aboard, Mister and Mrs. and the girls.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alessi have moved into their new home—4 days old — at 2248 Washington Street, with their two children, James, 1 year old and Carmella, with three years to her credit. They used to live at 5136 Palin Street, National City. Mr. Alessi is a carpenter, drives a '53 Pontiac, has applied for a phone and asked that the REVIEW be delivered. It's a pleasure to have you on our rapidly growing list of subscribers and we hope you will find Lemon Grove a better place to live (than National City).

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Remington, formerly living at 3740 Crown Point Drive, Crown Point (near Pacific Beach), have their own home at 1617 Skyline Drive, no children, a '52 Chevrolet and phone HO 3-1684. Mr. Remington is a special investigator at Convair. Sure, he subscribed for The REVIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Horton are renting the home at 3945 N. Bonita, Spring Valley. They have a daughter, Wanda, 9 years old, come from 972 Main Street, Buffalo, New York. Mr. Horton is with Western Electric, in installations. He drives a '56 Chevrolet, has applied for a phone, and subscribed for Spring Valley BULLETIN.

Here's another family that has settled in Spring Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lopshire have purchased the home (1 month old) at 10307 Ramona, Spring Valley, have a girl, Dena and another girl, Debbie, of 3 years. The family has been living at 3932 N. Bonita, Spring Valley. Mr. Lopshire is a plastering contractor, drives a '54 Ford. The phone is HO 9-3832, in case you want to get "plastered." To celebrate their moving they subscribed for the Spring Valley BULLETIN.—D.H.

Naval District Explains Medical Care Law

The Eleventh Naval District last week explained the chief provisions of the military dependents' medical care law which will become effective December 7.

The law names the kinds of care which dependents of active duty personnel may obtain at a minimum cost from civilian doctors and hospitals. The medical care provided in military facilities remain the same as before.

San Diego area dependents should use military and naval facilities. The law provides for a choice of private facilities.

The dependents will be required to pay the first $25 of a civilian hospital bill; or $1.75 a day of hospitalization, whichever is the larger. Otherwise the government will pay for normal expenses, including physicians' fees.

Following is the authorized care by civilian doctors in civilian hospitals:

1. Hospitalization in semi-private rooms, up to one year for each admission, including all necessary services and supplies during confinement.
2. Medical and surgical care during hospitalization.
3. Complete obstetrical care and maternity service.
4. Required service of a physician and surgeon before and after hospitalization for a body injury or for an operation.
5. Diagnostic tests and procedures, including laboratory and X-ray examinations.

Medical care is not authorized for:

1. Chronic diseases.
2. Nervous and mental diseases.
3. Elective medical and surgery treatment.
4. Domiciliary care.
5. Ambulance service.
6. Outpatient care.

Rest Station to Be Provided By State

A rest station will be provided by State Division of Beaches at a spot near the Imperial County line, as this county is among the top 20 on a priority list drawn up. In the initial program, $450-000 was budgeted.

Each roadside rest station will include picnic benches, water, a parking area and comfort station. It will provide a hospitable welcome to weary tourists after their long trek across the desert, and we hope the visitors will become permanent residents.—D. H.

Throwin' The Bull

By BOB TURNBULL

It's a Joke, Son! . . . A Helix High School civics teacher brought a copy of her final exam into the mimeograph room in the main building. The secretary looked at it and said, "But Mrs. Bole, this is the same exam you gave last year."

"I know," replied Mrs. Bole, "but I've changed the answers."

—BT—

Scoutin' the Seniors . . . Swimming ranks the highest in the hobbies with senior class prexy Jim Castle. A member of the Key Club and chairman of the Senior Gift Committee, Jim is one of the scouts for a prom site. Jim can be spotted in his black '49 Chevy convert or at a pigskin scrap, always going hoarse over his favorite gridders. College is next for Jim, the site unknown. . . . Girl of the Week is popular Myrtle Tilling, who last year came within a spider's eyebrow of copping the wielder of the school gavel. . . . Gene Gatewood's thoughtful timing hit Grossmont where it hurts. The loser of the Foothiller-Highlander battle was to receive the "booby-prize" trophy. A toy space gun looks neat in GUHS's trophy case. . . . Linda Fetterly doesn't believe that the 'hillers 'n 'landers will ever live co-existently in peace. (Neither can the Arabs and Israelites.)

—BT—

Diggin' the Alumni. . . . Congrats to Flo and Jud Bowers, '54, who are the proud parents of a bouncing baby daughter born last month in San Antonio, Texas. . . . Ernie Merk, Helix's football great of a few years back, is first string halfback for Eagle Rock Athletic Club, a semi-pro ball club. . . . Politicians from Highlandville reign supreme in numbers on the big Aztec campus. Jack Felson, '55, is running for sophomore prexy, Judy Kuykendall, '55, is running for secretary of said class, Connie Grader, '54, present songleader, is making an assault, publicitywise, for the office of vice-prexy of the junior class while Bernie Svalsad is in competition for treasurer.

—BT—

Sport Flashes . . . All-Metro end Gail Barsotti has returned as right end. Mother Nature blessed him with a quick healing job on his fractured wrist. . . . The X-Country hounds have suffered only one loss all year. Good record for the tough Metro competition. . . . The JV pigskiners are undefeated and sport a 4-0 record. . . . Returning for Helix next year from the varsity squad will be backs Joe Rockhold, Ron Palermo and Bill Ernest; guards Keith Hall, Phil Clark, Jerry Brock and Lee Birch; centers Dale Millhouse, Marvin Runge, Jib Osborne and Dennis Maihack; ends Larry Cushman, Bob Smith, Ron Peterson and Dick Cook; plus tackle Mike Bemis. Some of the crew will find their way to Mt. Miguel (if Mr. Grant had anything to say about it, they would all be there—three cheers for a (prophesized) wonderful new head man).

—BT—

Dis 'n Dat . . . Ann Peterson graduated from (ughh) Grossmont but prefers Helix for teaching. . . . Helix's fifth American Heritage pageant will be November 20 and 21. . . . First Congregational Church PF'ers recently held their annual "Work Day for Christ." . . . Helix's famous and spirit-sounding Bagpipe Band is once more in action. When their bellowing instruments of music were silent, believe me, they were missed.

Former Opera Star Residing In Spring Valley

By TOMMY THOMAS

The ranch type house is located at 4030 Bancroft Drive. The mailing address is La Mesa, but the house is actually in Spring Valley, it being the first one just behind the Food King Market.

Now let me introduce the lady of the house: Mrs. Rose Rita Mustone, a very charming person.

Next, the main person in this story, Maestro Guiseppe Inzerello, who lives at the same address. The Maestro and Mrs. Mustone are very dear friends of long standing.

"Who is Maestro Guiseppe Inzerillo?" some of the younger generation will ask. But to many of the older persons, the music lovers, his name was a household world in years gone by. He was known through Europe and North America, including Cuba as one of the greatest dramatic tenors of his day. He was compared only to the great Caruso. In fact the Maestro sang in opposition to Caruso at Havana, Cuba in 1920, the Maestro being at the Teatro Pyret, and Caruso at the Teatro Nacional. At one time he was billed as "Caruso's only rival."

Guiseppe Inzerillo was born in Palermo, Italy, August 10, 1885. In 1892 he and his family came to America. When Guiseppe was a bit older he got a job as a messenger and would often deliver telegrams to the old Broadway Athletic Club in New York. It was there he took an interest in boxing and decided to have a try as a fighter. But it wasn't long until he found he'd never make the grade.

Then it was that his thoughts turned to music and he decided to make a career of it. He studied a short time with an American teacher, and in 1912 he returned to Italy. He studied with several of the great music lovers of that day, in Germany, France and Italy.

In between lessons he did some public singing, and soon became well known as an up and coming star.

In 1915 Maestro Inzerillo returned to the United States and settled in New York. That is when he took up opera singing seriously. He sang in some of the greatest operas, touring Europe, the United States, Cuba and Canada.

For ten years his opera career lasted, at one time being with the San Carlo Opera Company, which played in San Diego in 1921. And in between engagements, the Maestro did a bit of teaching, more as a favor to his friends, who aspired to do something with their voices.

Meets Queen Elizabeth

Maestro Inzerillo sang with such noted persons as Cantor Joseph Rosenblath, Escobal, and many others too numerous to mention. During one of his teaching periods in Canada he had the pleasure of meeting the Mother Queen Elizabeth, who was on a good will tour at the time. He met her through the mayor of Vancouver, Lyle Telfor, who was taking singing lessons from the Maestro.

Actually the Maestro started his serious teaching in Winnepeg, Canada in 1922. Since then he has taught in Vancouver, B.C., Seattle, Washington, Portland, Oregon, New York, and Los Angeles. Of course he now is located here in Spring Valley. But every Saturday he takes the bus to Los Angeles, gives a few lessons and comes right home.

The list of noted persons the Maestro has helped with their voices is long: Bernarr MacFadden, the publisher and physical culturist and family; Paula Corday who sang with Mario Lanza (The Maestro is a good friend of Lanza's); the Captino Sisters, four sisters who are now taking Mexico City by storm; Theresa Chelli, who played in the movie "The Life of Caruso"; Henry Armetta; LaVerne Hutcherson, the colored singer in "Porgy and Bess"; James Alexander and Betty Jane Watson, both of "Oklahoma"; Chris Bavelles of "Kismet"; Franklin Pangborn, comedian of long standing, with Republic Studios.

He has also helped such persons as John Carroll, the movie star; Judy Canova; Phil Reed of the movies; Leslie Carter, a star of David Belasco. There are hundreds of photos of stars and former stars in and around the studio of Maestro Inzerillo. Even one with he and Edward Arnold, the late star of stage, screen and radio-tv.

Memories, memories, memories. The Maestro still lives with them. He still has two trunks full of costumes, wigs and gear that he wore in many of the operas. He has Caruso's boots that the tenor wore in the opera "Aida."

As I mentioned before, Maestro Guiseppe Inzerillo now has a studio at the Bancroft Drive address. He teaches the Italian Bel Canto method scientifically. He has many charts on the subject, many books on his shelves, and even a human skull to demonstrate the working of the larynx.

The Maestro has been offered many positions with movie studios and musical concerns, but refused all because he "Wants to be on my own." He is now teaching seven students of Grossmont High School. He gives free auditions by appointment. He doesn't "beat about the bush," but tells you you either have it or you don't. He doesn't want to take money under false pretenses. His phone number is HO 9-0767.

Drop by sometime and chat with 71 year old (he doesn't look it) Maestro Guiseppe Inzerillo. He'll be glad to see you, and I'll wager you'll go home a lot happier.

Polio Vaccine Goes Begging In County

The Salk vaccine, one of the great medical discoveries of our time, is going unused in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

San Diego County is returning 8,000 doses of the public supply of Salk vaccine because of lack of demand here from parents, according to Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health. Because the vaccine is due to expire on December 4, 1956, Dr. Askew said, "It is only just that the vaccine be returned by San Diego County so that other areas in California who want the vaccine may have it to protect their children from paralytic poliomyelitis."

Dr. Askew urged all parents of children through 19 years of age and pregnant women to see their family physicians as soon as possible about vaccination against paralytic poliomyelitis. Experience in San Diego County has proved the vaccine 85 per cent effective in reducing the incidence of paralytic poliomyelitis, he said.

The public supply of Salk vaccine is available for pregnant women and children to 19 years of age by bringing to the department of public health a prescription from a physician, Askew said. The Salk vaccine is distributed from three centers: 3330 Congress Street at the health department main office in San Diego; 112 South Cleveland Street, Oceanside; and the Palomar Memorial Hospital in Escondido. The public supply of Salk vaccine was set up by Congress to supplement the commercial supply to make sure that the vaccine would be available to every child.

Parents of children in the 0 to 4 age group should know, Dr. Askew said, that this year the incidence of poliomyelitis has been higher among these younger children. The reason for the increase of poliomyelitis among the children under 5 years may be explained by the fact that early inoculation programs with Salk vaccine concentrated on the 5 to 9 age group, he said.

In San Diego county so far this year, the highest percentage of reported cases of poliomyelitis occurred in the 1 to 4 age group (31 per cent). Twenty-one per cent of the reported cases of polio were in the 5 to 9 age group as compared to 33⅓ per cent in previous years.

Lemon Grove Leads Unincorporated Area In Building Permits

Development of several new subdivisions in Lemon Grove boosted the building volume in this area to $799,900 in September, far exceeding any other unincorporated area in San Diego County.

September total for the Grove included 67 new homes with a value of $727,400.

If this area keeps up the pace for the remainder of the year, which is very probable, as construction on two large subdivisions is just getting started, the district may recapture the construction lead from Vista, northern county area which was high last year. The 1955 period—12 months—is the only year since the war that any section other than Lemon Grove has been tops in the unincorporated areas.

Vista has been leading this year but the Grove is rapidly catching up, with $899,900 in September and 944,000 in July. Other months this year the Grove hovered around the $300,000 mark.

Residential construction increase gave the county another building month of $4,000,000. The total of all construction in all unincorporated areas was $3,878,950 in September.

Of this amount, housing accounted for $3,105,700 and permits authorized 283 single-family houses and 27 multiple units. So far this year 2,757 dwelling units have been authorized in the county.

Other than residential construction in the county in September included 98 permits for alterations and repairs, value at $164-500, 58 private garages, $75,000, 83 barns, storage and miscellaneous buildings, $100,100 and 27 commercial or public buildings, $433,200.

You folks who haven't selected your "dream home" site in Lemon Grove better get busy so you can say, with the little boy at the Sunday School picnic, "I'm awful glad I come."

Anyhow, Dr. Miller had a map stuck up on the magnet board and a pointer in his right hand, and he showed where the planned changes were to be, without getting a cheer.

Dr. Miller said there were few differences of opinion, with no approval of the plan. Asked for raised hands of approval, and not one firm right arm was elevated.

Those not opposed to suggested changes regarding their own property brought up three hands.

The session lasted past the noon recess time and it was nearly 1 p.m. when Dave Bird came down to the cafeteria with Captain Bob Goodbody and had a sandwich and a cuppa coffee. Asked what the board did about Lakeside, Dave gave me a look, said "Nothing. What did you expect?" So I guess there'll be another hearing.

At 10:30 a hearing was scheduled to hear the executive committee of Fiesta del Pacifico for $50,000 for next year's Fiesta. The board will consider the proposed donation and would give the board's answer in a month.

Local Firm Marks 10 Years In Wood Cutting Tool Manufacturing Business

From a simple basement workshop to a modern, 14-thousand square foot plant in 10 years — that's the record of growth established by the Jet Tool Company of Lemon Grove as it enters its eleventh year of business.

Specializing in the manufacture of high-grade wood cutting tools, the rapidly expanding firm also boasts distribution of its products in all but two of the 48 states. And this situation, partners James Snodgrass and Grant Hadley predict, will be remedied in the very near future.

In looking back over their 10 years of growth, the two men racall the 16-hour day and the seven-day week they devoted to producing aircraft tooling parts on a sub-contract basis. Not only did they do the actual manufacturing, but they also comprised the company's only sales force in this highly competitive business.

It was during this formulative period that aircraft production suddenly took a decided slump, forcing the partners to seek new outlets for their skills as tool and die makers. After a thorough survey of the existing markets, they secured basic U.S. and Canadian patents and began the manufacture of wood working tools in their Lemon Grove factory.

Jim Snodgrass and Grant Hadley, co-partners in the Jet Tool Company of Lemon Grove.

Today, they are the basic suppliers of such tools for the nationally-known Atlas Press Company of Kalamazoo, Michigan. In addition, Jet Tool commands 40 per cent of the market in the sale of carbide door lip cutters. The company also is back doing subcontract work for a variety of other businesses.

Jet Tool, with machinery and equipment valued in excess of 100-thousand dollars, already is making plans for further expansion on the site of its present Lemon Grove plant. Partners Snodgrass and Hadley, each with more than a quarter of a century of experience in the tool and die making field, forsee unlimited opportunities in the marketing of wood working products. And this, they say, results partially from the tremendous growth of the "do it yourself" trend, as well as technological advances in the industrial field.

AREA RESIDENTS

As long-time residents of the La Mesa-Lemon Grove area, both men have been instrumental in the civic progress of the two communities, contributing their time and talents to various local projects. Among his many activities, Hadley counts membership in the Lions and Toastmasters Clubs. He and his wife, Marie are the parents of two boys 11-year old James and 10-year old Larry, both students at La Mesa Elementary school. The Hadleys recently moved to a new home at 3122 Chateau Way in Lemon Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass, who reside at 8471 Dexter Drive in Lemon Grove, are the parents of one son, 12-year old Jamie, who attends Lemon Grove Junior High School. Mrs. Snodgrass is active in the local P.-T.A., as well as the Business Women's Club and the Lafayette Club.
